NOTICE

The College cordially invites our esteemed faculty members and distinguished students to observe World Storytelling Day on 20th March 2026. This international celebration highlights the art of oral storytelling and the power of shared narratives in connecting diverse cultures. We encourage our academic community to participate in this event to rediscover the impact of narratives in shaping human perspective and wisdom.

The esteemed presence of all students and faculty members is mandatory as we honour the timeless tradition of sharing stories.
